

In each question, choose the correct verb.

1. Is there an official time for the lunch break in your company or can you make / take it anytime you want?
2. Did you have / do a year off after you finished school and before you started working?
3. Why is it good to take / make a language course abroad?
4. How often do you forget to make / do your homework?
5. What degree did you do / make at university?
6. How often do you make / do some revision just before a test?
7. Is there anything you wouldn't like to have / do for lunch tomorrow?
8. What class would you like to take / make when you retire?
9. How often do you have to use your dictionary when you make / do an exercise in your workbook?
10. Did you always have / take your exams at university as soon as possible or did you sometimes postpone them?
11. When did you last have / make a good time at a party?
12. How long does it do / take you to get from home to work?

In each question, choose the correct verb.

1. Is there an official time for the lunch break in your company or can you make / take it anytime you want?
2. Did you have / do a year off after you finished school and before you started working?
3. Why is it good to take / make a language course abroad?
4. How often do you forget to make / do your homework?
5. What degree did you do / make at university?
6. How often do you make / do some revision just before a test?
7. Is there anything you wouldn't like to have / do for lunch tomorrow?
8. What class would you like to take / make when you retire?
9. How often do you have to use your dictionary when you make / do an exercise in your workbook?
10. Did you always have / take your exams at university as soon as possible or did you sometimes postpone them?
11. When did you last have / make a good time at a party?
12. How long does it do / take you to get from home to work?