

Fill in the gaps with active or passive forms of the verbs. Use only present tenses.

1. How often you (print) documents at home?
2. the window in this class (open)?
3. Where the most shoes (produce)?
4. Where you usually (buy) your shoes?
5. How often your car (wash)?
6. a lot of food (throw) away in your family?
7. How many letters you (send) before Christmas?
8. there many good songs (play) on the radio?
9. How often the shops (close) when you go home from work?
10. When your children (feed) your dog?
11. you (build) a new house at the moment?
12. What time you usually (serve) lunch on Sundays?

Fill in the gaps with active or passive forms of the verbs. Use only present tenses.

1. How often you (print) documents at home?
2. the window in this class (open)?
3. Where the most shoes (produce)?
4. Where you usually (buy) your shoes?
5. How often your car (wash)?
6. a lot of food (throw) away in your family?
7. How many letters you (send) before Christmas?
8. there many good songs (play) on the radio?
9. How often the shops (close) when you go home from work?
10. When your children (feed) your dog?
11. you (build) a new house at the moment?
12. What time you usually (serve) lunch on Sundays?