Travel (= cestování)

Travel / Travelling (noun) is the activity when you go from place to place. It is usually very far. It is uncountable (= nepočitatelné), so never "a travel".

We can say: air travel, business travel, a travel agency (= cestovka).

→ Air travel is very expensive.

Travel is also a verb: we travel by car, train, plane, or ship.

→ I love to travel!

Journey ['dʒɜːni] (= cesta)

Journey is one part of travel, when you go from A to B. We can say: a bus journey, a train journey, the journey to school.

→ How long does your journey to school take?

*to feed – to give food to an animal

Trip (= výlet, cesta)

Trip means when you go somewhere and come back (it's one trip but two journeys).

We can say: a round trip (= cesta tam a zpět), a boat trip, or a business trip (= služební cesta).

→ Let's go on a trip to the mountains this summer!

*Bath – a town in the UK

Voyage ['vɔɪdʒ] (= plavba)

Voyage means a very long trip, usually at sea or in space.

→ At the age of twenty-three, Sir Francis Drake made his first voyage to the New World.
