

Fill in the gaps with suitable forms of the verbs. Use to + infinitive or –ing ending.

1. Do you prefer (live) in the town or in the country? Why do you think so?
2. Are you thinking of (look) for another English course?
3. Do you mind (clean) your flat?
4. Have your children ever wanted you (leave) the house because they wanted to have a party there?
5. Do you have to remind your children (wash) their hands before eating?
6. How often did you avoid (go) to school when you were at primary school?
7. Have you ever seen anybody (steal) a car?
8. When did you last stop (work) because you were drinking your coffee?
9. Have you ever pretended (be) ill because you didn't want to do something?
10. What do you enjoy (do) at the weekend?
11. Does your family expect you (cook) hot dinner every day?
12. Did your parents force you (play) a musical instrument?

Fill in the gaps with suitable forms of the verbs. Use to + infinitive or –ing ending.

1. Do you prefer (live) in the town or in the country? Why do you think so?
2. Are you thinking of (look) for another English course?
3. Do you mind (clean) your flat?
4. Have your children ever wanted you (leave) the house because they wanted to have a party there?
5. Do you have to remind your children (wash) their hands before eating?
6. How often did you avoid (go) to school when you were at primary school?
7. Have you ever seen anybody (steal) a car?
8. When did you last stop (work) because you were drinking your coffee?
9. Have you ever pretended (be) ill because you didn't want to do something?
10. What do you enjoy (do) at the weekend?
11. Does your family expect you (cook) hot dinner every day?
12. Did your parents force you (play) a musical instrument?