

Make the adverbs of the words in the brackets and create their positive, comparative or superlative forms:

- 1) Do you work as (hard) as your colleagues?
- 2) Would you like to speak English (fluent)?
- 3) Do you understand English (good) than a year ago?
- 4) Which car goes (fast)?
- 5) Who dresses (stylish) in your class?
- 6) Who cooks (bad)? Your mother or your mother-in-law?
- 7) Does your dog run as (slow) as your cat?
- 8) Which nation behaves (peaceful)?
- 9) Who lives (far) from ONLY4?
- 10) Do you think you should do your homework (careful)?
- 11) Do you take your work as (serious) as you used to at the beginning of your career?
- 12) If you had time what would you do (frequent)?

Make the adverbs of the words in the brackets and create their positive, comparative or superlative forms:

- 1) Do you work as (hard) as your colleagues?
- 2) Would you like to speak English (fluent)?
- 3) Do you understand English (good) than a year ago?
- 4) Which car goes (fast)?
- 5) Who dresses (stylish) in your class?
- 6) Who cooks (bad)? Your mother or your mother-in-law?
- 7) Does your dog run as (slow) as your cat?
- 8) Which nation behaves (peaceful)?
- 9) Who lives (far) from ONLY4?
- 10) Do you think you should do your homework (careful)?
- 11) Do you take your work as (serious) as you used to at the beginning of your career?
- 12) If you had time what would you do (frequent)?